ITALIAN PROSECCO

Prosecco is an Italian sparkling white wine, generally a dry or extra dry wine. It is normally made from Glera (the grape formerly known, itself, as “Prosecco”) though other varieties, such as Bianchetta Trevigiana, are permitted to be included in the blend.

Although the name is derived from that of the Italian village of Prosecco near Trieste, where the grape may have originated, DOC Prosecco is produced in the regions of Veneto and Friuli Venezia Giulia, traditionally mainly around Conegliano and Valdobbiadene, in the hills north of Treviso.

CARPENÈ MALVOLTÌ PICCOLO DOCG

ORIGIN AND SOIL

The vineyards are on the hillsides of the historic DOCG area of Conegliano and Valdobbiadene, with exposure to south/south east, at an altitude of 300/400 metres above sea level. Stratification of typical red sheeting soil, and greyish malm and clay.

COLOUR

Straw yellow with greenish nuances.

BOUQUET

A very delicate scent of green apple, rich in citrus and vegetable aromas.

SANTA MARGHERITA
EXTRA DRY DOC

ORIGIN AND SOIL

The base wine for fermentation is obtained from clusters grown in the Valdobbiadene hill country.

COLOUR

The star-bright straw yellow hue and lingering streams of tiny bubbles usher in subtle aromatics of flowers with pear and peach-like white-fleshed fruits.

PALATE

Stimulating freshness on the full-bodied, elegant palate brings out the long-lingering suite of subtly nuanced aromatics with fruity hints of pineapples and Renet apples. Softness of texture and fragrant aromatics have earned this wine admirers both as an aperitif and as a partner for spicy, flavour-rich starters.

AREA OF ORIGIN

The story behind the Bottle... Decorating glass is a Venetian tradition and was a part of the opulent lifestyle during Republic times. A Gold Wine Bottle brings Good Luck and Wealth.

COLOUR

Soft straw yellow.

BOUQUET

Fruity and elegant with clean notes of citrus, pears and apples along with floral notes such as wisteria and elder.

PALATE

Fine bubbles caress the palate, making it deliciously light and playful. A subtle minerality, well - balanced by flavours of apples and peaches give the wine a persistent finish.

NV SPARKLING

The majority of Sparkling produced is non-vintage – a blend of wines from several years. This means that no declared year will be displayed on the bottle label. Typically, however, the majority of the wine is from the current year but a percentage is made of reserve wine from previous years. This serves to smooth out some of the vintage variations caused by the marginal growing climate,

Most brands strive for a consistent house style from year to year (largely for reasons related to price-setting and successful marketing), and this is arguably one of the hardest tasks of the house winemaker.

Haselgrove

HASELGROVE "H" BRUT

A close-up, sepia-toned photograph of two champagne bottles. The bottle in the foreground is in sharp focus, showing the intricate details of the foil-wrapped cork and the neck of the bottle. The second bottle is in the background, slightly out of focus. The lighting creates strong highlights and shadows, emphasizing the textures of the glass and foil.

MOSCATO

Italy/Australia

Moscato wine is an ideal drink for a bright sunny day. It tastes sweet and has a pale yellow or gold appearance. It is an ideal drink for wine beginners and is often served as a dessert wine at various events.

Moscato wine is derived from Moscato grapes which is a type of Muscat grape, grown especially for this wine. Muscat grapes have a sweet aroma and are grown all over the world; and according to experts these are one of the oldest varieties of grapes used to make wines. As the grapes are grown globally, their name changes from region to region; some call them Yellow Muscat, Muscat Blanc, Moscato Bianco, and Muscat Canelli. Even though it is not a favourite among experts, none can deny the importance that Moscato shares in history. It has been reported that Moscato grape was a major ingredient in many alcoholic beverages found in the tomb of King Midas. So it can be said that someone who likes drinking this wine shares the same taste that royalty had.

Wonderfully aromatic
and low in alcohol.

BOUQUET

The sweetest and most fragrant Muscat grapes give a unique aroma to this acacia and wisteria hints.

BEELGARA MOSCATO

TASTING NOTE

A refreshing Moscato
bursting with rose petal aromas and a fresh and vibrant palate with fruit
tingle and floral flavours.
This moscato uses the natural grape sweetness to some of the residual sugar

as well as a slight result of only partial fermentation of the grape must and is an ideal al

fresco wine.

LAMBRUSCO

Italy

Lambrusco is the name of both a red wine grape and the wine made principally from the grape. The grapes and the wine originate from four zones in Emilia-Romagna and one in Lombardy, mainly around the central provinces of Modena, Parma, Reggio nell'Emilia, and Mantua. The grape has a long winemaking history with archaeological evidence indicating that the Etruscans cultivated the vine.

In Roman times, the Lambrusco was highly valued for its productivity and high yield.

Taken as a whole, Lambrusco is a wine whose primary characteristics are sparkle, lightness and low alcohol content.
